

ACLE TENNIS CLUB CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS

Members of our club are expected to follow a set of minimum standards of behaviour to enable members and guests to enjoy their tennis and avoid serious issues arising:

1. Play within the rules and treat everyone at the club with fairness and respect both on and off the court and in all communications relating to tennis and tennis club activities /management.

2. Promote a culture of welcome, friendship, co-operation and encouragement to allow the club to flourish.

3. Be alert - safeguard children and vulnerable adults at all times and report concerns to the Welfare Officer:BELINDA McINTOSH 07796 161810

4. Set an example of good behaviour:

NB. Swearing, abusive language or aggressive behaviour or aggressive communication, intimidation or actions which may bring the club into disrepute or cause mental or physical harm to members/guests on or off court will not be tolerated and may be subject to disciplinary action by the Committee.