Cash payments may be made in person by arrangement with the Membership Secretary.

How we treat your data

Under the terms of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 and UK data protection laws we are required to advise you that your personal details will be held on a computer and will not be made available except as required for L.T.A. or Arundel Lawn Tennis Club purposes. The telephone numbers and email addresses of adult members in any category may be displayed in the Clubhouse or distributed by email to other members from time-to-time to facilitate arranging events and so forth. Please notify us if you would prefer that your email/phone details are not shared in this way.

Any personal data we hold is stored and processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 and UK data protection laws. Should you wish to make a subject access request, please email info@arundeltennis.co.uk.

Club house keys are available for Adult members on request (a £5 deposit is required)
