

Tournaments report 2021

The Club Championship Finals in were split over two dates this year due to unforeseen circumstances. However this did not diminish the quality and entertainment.

There were some first time winners and some usual faces which is great to see.

The First Finals Day started with Jack Malone and Chris Rhodes defeating Patrick Parry Evans and Matt Dunne in the 90+ followed by Joe Porter beating Harry Malone in a high quality display.

Unfortunately the mens doubles was cut short due to injury with Joe Porter and Collen Mhlanga prevailing against Jack and Harry Malone. The last match of the day saw Phil Shakeshaft and Emma Lycett beat David Green and Jo Brattle in a three setter.

The second Finals Day started with a victory for Katie Standley and Louise Stuart Smith against Sue Walsh and Helen Atherton in the 90+ with the same four competing for the Ladies Doubles, this time the result reversed. Sue also beat Helen in a closely fought singles.

I would like to thank all the people who volunteered to umpire the finals, to Elaine for superb catering and all those that provided cakes on both days.

Also thanks to Matt Quinn and Sam Kurlej for organizing the other mixed tournaments throughout the year.

It is proposed that next year we change the ruling so that you cannot enter with same partner in 90+ and doubles.
