

Code of practice for young people

Charlton Kings Tennis Place is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that everyone associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

As a young person attending Charlton Kings Tennis Place, you are expected to abide by the following code of practice:

- Be friendly, supportive and welcoming to other children and adults
- Play fairly and honestly
- Respect club staff, volunteers and officials and accept their decisions
- Behave, respect and listen to your coach
- Wear suitable kit for training sessions and matches, as agreed with the coach
- Take care of your equipment and club property
- Arrive promptly for training and competitions and inform your coach or team manager if you are going to be late
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, culture, religion or sexual identity
- Not use bad, inappropriate or racist language, including on social media
- Not bully, intimidate or harass anyone, including on social media
- Not smoke, drink alcohol or drugs of any kind on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions or events
- Talk to the club Welfare Officer about any concerns or worries they have about themselves or others.
