A special thank you to Malcolm and Tricia

Whenever you say Edgbaston Archery the name Malcolm Sidwell comes immediately to mind and for very good reasons! It is very likely you and/ or your children will have been coached by Malcolm and Tricia at some point, played in one of their tournaments or that they just made you feel welcome when you visited our club. Their time at EALTS has seen many events, more memories made and even more accomplishments - we cannot say a big enough thank you for all their hard work, sheer determination and dedication during their incredible careers at EALTS. I know everyone wishes both Malcolm & Tricia a very happy retirement, you will be missed and we hope you come back and visit us soon.

Thank you for all that you have done for EALTS & Goodbye Malcolm and Tricia!
