History of the Kent Tennis Awards

The Kent Tennis Awards began in 2004 with eight categories – Player, Coach, Club, School, Local Authority, Volunteer, Team and Outstanding Contribution. In 2007, Junior Player and Junior Leader were added and in 2011, the Club Award was divided into small (1 - 4 courts) and large (5+ courts). Local Authority disappeared along the way. In 2015, the LTA created a new British Tennis Awards scheme and as a result we added Disability and Community Awards. In 2017, Awards for Official and Competition were added. For the 2019 awards Performance coach was a new category. In nine of the categories, Kent nominates winners for regional and national awards. This does not include Player and Team Awards which are done differently at national level.

Past winners in each category are listed in this programme for 12 years only.

Trophies and Awards

The Charles Bailey Award for Outstanding Achievement

This is the most prestigious of the Kent Awards. The trophy is presented in honour of Charles Bailey, who made 80 appearances for the Kent Men's team. In 1983 he became captain and the team rose from division 3 to national champions in 1986 and retained the title in 1987. He was a member of the Kent Council for 23 years until his death in 2006. In 1998 a new tennis centre at Sevenoaks School was named the Bailey Centre. The trophy is a silver bowl and presented to a person who has made a significant contribution to Kent Tennis over many years in participation, performance or tennis administration. It is known in the LTA Awards as the Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Ian Wright Award for Junior Player of the Year

Ian Wright was a member and official at the Bexley Tennis Club for over 50 years, running the Bexley Junior Tournament and often known as Mr Bexley. In North Kent, he managed the league handbook for many years. For Kent, he was a long standing member of the junior committee, on the Kent Council for 27 years and a Life Vice-President for a further 16 years. The award is a shield and is presented to a junior player who has achieved significantly at a very high level, probably internationally.

The Sadie Bristow Award for Junior Team of the Year

This award was introduced in 2018. It is in honour of Sadie Bristow, who suffered an unexpected fatal anaphylactic shock in August 2018. Sadie represented Kent in the 9U team. She was a fantastic athlete and tennis was a huge passion. Although only nine years old she had achieved considerable success, ranked number 1 in GB, having won over 40 tournaments. Sadie's parents and friends have set up a foundation in her memory to raise funds to provide tennis opportunities for children in schools and raise awareness of allergies. The trophy is a cup and has been donated by the LTA. It is presented to a junior team which has achieved significant success at a high level.

The LTA Meritorious Service Award

County Associations are invited annually to nominate a person who has made a significant contribution to tennis in their county. We do not nominate every year, only when there is a suitable candidate. From 2001 until 2017 the intention was to recognise the contribution of a person in any aspect of tennis either in clubs or for the county itself. From 2018, the criteria were changed to recognise a person who has contributed for a significant length of time to county tennis activities.

This inspired and encouraged other volunteers to step forward to help, creating a positive and attractive atmosphere within the club in a Covid friendly manner.

St Johns now has six courts offering two different surfaces with new CCTV monitoring, refurbished clubhouse and watering system Their playing membership has increased by over a staggering 40% this year. He is always keen to help out at competitions and has been active on social media, amongst other things, supporting the club during these challenging times. Ethan has progressed well at the club and has demonstrated his abilities to take the lead on court and is always prepared to help other less experienced tennis leaders. Ethan is a terrific role model for young players.

Kati Rust (Bromley Tennis Centre & Bridge TC)

Kati joined BTC on a voluntary basis to develop her skills and progress along the coaching pathway. Since joining BTC her confidence has grown and her enthusiasm on court has been infectious. She is setting a great example to our juniors who may be aspiring coaches in the future. She is half-way through her Level 1 Coaching Course and is keen to learn from all sources available. The school have strong links with Bridge Tennis Club and The Sadie Bristow Foundation, and with their help were very communicative and responsive in keeping the tennis programme going whilst in lockdown. They engaged with parents through home-made videos involving tennis related skills, fitness advice and healthy eating challenges. All teachers got their classes involved to keep children active with tennis Innovation to develop skills and watching YouTube tennis lessons especially recorded to keep pupils and parents' interest. Once schools opened, they were the first to have tennis back in their daily school PE sessions. The coaches immediately returned to start coaching tennis in 'bubbles' and have managed to maintain engagement with the children and continue to inspire them during these challenging times. They organised a tennis 24-hour challenge where parents and children could play against the coaches or with their own partners.

Deal Parochial CE Primary School

A strong link with The Deal Indoor Tennis Centre is integral to the school's year-round tennis programme. During lockdown, the DITC was closed for several months. The school compensated for this by providing tennis videos through the school website, including a link to the LTA's Home Activities Hub. Following partial school return, all pupils' bubbles received weekly tennis lessons to promote a sense of normality and physical and mental well-being. Following full school return the bad weather sessions were replaced by fun science sessions on tennis-related topics (e.g. backspin and momentum) and the school continued with providing tennis based activities. As part of the schools' network, Deal Parochial assisted Sholden Primary School in their 'Tennis Foundation' membership and signposted them to LTA teacher tennis training.

The two-court facility was resurfaced by a community crowdfunding project. The government and LTA guidelines were communicated to all members when play could restart, as well as being clearly displayed at each court. The on court booking scheme was adapted to enable more players to participate, and junior coaching was restructured to allow for more social distancing. A very welcoming environment which encouraged more people to take up tennis and as a result an increase in membership going forward.

Tennis for Free, Bromley

This programme has shown a 13% increase in members since 2019. It includes a large coaching programme and teams playing in local leagues. The coaching programmes were run using the Clubspark programme, making it more easily accessible to all players. Gravesham LTC

Gravesham LTC made significant achievements in 2020. These included completion of a self-funded £50,000 resurfacing project; successful funding bids to Sport England and Kent Sport; and membership growth with over 60 new adult members. The club introduced a number of initiatives to make facilities and coaching available to the wider local community, including key workers and their children. A very successful 'Summer Spectacular' tennis event was held adhering to Covid protocols. Social media was utilised to maintain club communications when face to face communication was restricted. Social media has also been instrumental in welcoming and integrating new members with a 'virtual hello' supplementing the Sunday morning social sessions.

Old Wilsonians' LTC

Old Wilsonians's had a very successful 2020. This included, amongst other things, recruitment of 100 new members and enhancing playing surfaces, thus increasing the capacity for coaching. The club redesigned the new members process to ensure that integration into the club is as engaging and welcoming as possible. During the pandemic members have remained loyal to the club and use of the club courts and grounds have been made available to the wider local community. Effective protocols were implemented post-lockdown to optimise use of the courts in a controlled manner with additional club play sessions resulting in the courts being busier than ever.

The Sundridge Park Club

The Club strategy for 2020 was to enhance the membership experience and to extend reach into the community via Pay and Play. Adult membership increased by 36% with court usage up significantly on 2019 levels. New member initiatives were introduced to ensure a friendly welcome and integration into the club community. The appointment of a full-time manager enabled operational improvements resulting in an increase in the club's operating surplus. Planning permission has been secured for two Padel courts with LTA funding. The club's community spirit was demonstrated during the pandemic with a number of initiatives to provide support to members with social media utilised to encourage engagement in at home activities.

2020 Finalists

Daniel Shearing (Bethersden Tennis Club)

For about 10 years Daniel has been consistently developing his personal and coaching skills as part of the coaching team at Bethersden. In 2020, when maintaining contacts and morale has been so important, Daniel has really shone. During lockdowns he has helped the coaching team to maintain engagement with members through online messages, challenges and quizzes, and he has been instrumental in safely reinstating programmes and competitive opportunities as quickly as possible. He is a great team player, club committee member, team captain, junior coordinator, and active Kent Coaches network member and is a wonderful role model for teenagers and young players.

Michel Suleau (Gravesham LTC)

Michel has been the driving force behind the coaching team at Gravesham for many years. He is passionate about tennis and uses all his skills and experience to personalise his coaching and help every player to reach their full potential. This year Michel has been very active in maintaining engagement with members using videos of tennis skills and information appropriate to the various different member groups. He has also been helping the club to grow membership through initiatives such as supporting introductory coaching sessions, encouraging key workers to try out tennis, and then helping new members' integration into the club.

Sam Tyler (The Parklangley Club)

Sam is a County Training coach with a passion for tennis evident in both the group performance and individual lessons he delivers. Sam is constantly adapting his coaching to equip his players with the technical aspects of the game. During lockdown Sam was active in keeping in touch with players and setting up an online group for the youngsters. Sam set a number of fun challenges for his younger groups and demonstrated how to practice simple skills at home without worrying parents. Sam also made himself available to his younger players when they needed someone to talk to. After restrictions eased Sam returned to the tennis courts teaching lessons in full compliance with Covid protocols.

COMPETITION OF THE YEAR

Presented by Sandi Procter, LTA Deputy President

Past Winners

- 2017 Kent County Championships
- 2018 Kent County Championships
- 2019 The Sadie Bristow Competition

2020 Finalists

Gravesham LTC Summer Spectacular

Gravesham LTC ran a 'Summer Spectacular' tennis event to support player morale during a period when competitive tennis was largely suspended. The singles and doubles event comprised six teams with ages ranging from 15 - 82 years and playing levels from novices to ATP tour players. Teams were organised to optimise the opportunities for new members to meet new people and play against others of a similar level of ability. Significant planning ensured strict adherence to the LTA issued Covid guidelines and the feedback from players and spectators was outstandingly positive.

Jack Petchey 21st Birthday Celebration Series (Old Wilsonians' LTC)

Using a cash gift from The Jack Petchey Foundation, Old Wilsonians' organised two events specifically aimed at children and young adults denied their usual playing opportunities due to the pandemic. Box leagues, for youngsters aged 11-18, were played over six weeks, supervised by parents and adhering to the club's strict Covid protocols. A knock out, cash prize, singles tournament for players aged 18-25 was completed in one day. The incentive of cash prizes for winning matches stimulated the player's competitive instincts without undermining their sporting principles.

The Parklangley Performance Lockdown Team Challenge

This was the Parklangley initiative for encouraging players to remain active during lockdown by continuing with the LTA team challenge. Team challenges were demonstrated to the players by the coaches via Zoom meetings or social media videos. Challenges were undertaken by the players at home, recorded on video, and submitted to the club for posting on the Parklangley social media sites. To widen the range of engagement, quizzes were run to include the adult coaching groups in the fun.

OFFICIAL OF THE YEAR

Presented by John Watton, Kent Tennis President

Past Winners

2017 Chris Mann
2018 Charlie Falconer
2019 Susan Finch

2020 Finalists

Sarah Langford

Having grown up competing in tennis Sarah's passion, since university, has always been the benefits of good competitions. Sarah understands the impact a bad experience can have on a child, especially at Mini Red level. During lockdown Sarah was furloughed as BTC was closed, However, once restrictions were lifted Sarah started collaborating with the coaching team to make sure that competition week is a regular part of their term time curriculum getting players back to competition and used to the pressure of a live match situation. She is up-skilling all the teams to be confident when talking to parents about competition so that everyone is in a position to advise players about their entry. Sarah is working hard to make competition at BTC inclusive for everyone and an enjoyable aspect of their game. Sarah is currently working with Tom Defrates (BTC's Disability Co-ordinator) in order to make sure the county's disabled players are able to be a part of next year's County Closed events. This has been an aim for the last few years, but hopefully with the extra planning that has been put in place, it should come to fruition in 2021.

Angie Suleau

Due to Angie being seriously ill during December 2019 you would assume that she would have taken time off work once she came out of hospital. Her dedication to the game meant that the following week, she ran a tournament with the help of her husband Michel and a junior assistant, for 19 children and continued with events for various age groups through January to March. During lockdown Angie attended a number of Kent LTA coffee mornings which covered the frequently changing COVID-19 guidelines and protocols, and the sharing of best practice with other Kent Clubs. Weekly training started in June with the launch of the LTA's new Competition Management system specifically for Referee's and Officials. She has been keen to support this initiative with constructive and helpful feedback. Once lockdown restrictions were lifted she was back in her role as a Competition Organiser organising club and official LTA tournaments, and running them as a referee. Angie was recently awarded her long service certificate for 20 years as an ABTO official.

Anna was responsible for hiring a new club manager; a major upgrade to the existing website; securing new physical advertising; and starting an instagram account which now has a 1000 followers. Anna has facilitated weekly playing sessions providing pay and play opportunities for non members, and cross-promoting with local businesses and schools. Anna has led a number of LTA initiatives at the Club and her involvement to develop a padel project has seen the successful application for LTA funds. This has all been achieved whilst managing compliance with Covid restrictions and optimising member safe, playing opportunities.

Diana Winters (Tunbridge Wells LTC)

Diana has been Treasurer at Tunbridge Wells for a number of years. In 2020 the chairman left the club at the start of lockdown, followed by the club manager who left shortly after. Diana stepped up as acting chair and got involved more in the day to day management of the club. Diana already had a lot of work and responsibility as club treasurer, and has now taken on so much more. Her hard work and dedication to the club has kept the Club operating to its usual standards during these especially difficult times and she is now even more respected by members and staff alike.

Janet was heavily involved in setting up a junior coaching programme well before the club had employed a coach. Currently she is the Fixtures Secretary. She was a member of the Ladies 1 team and captained them for a long period during their successful participation in both North Kent and Kent leagues. She also served as League Secretary for the North Kent League for 10 years.

Mick Proffitt (The Parklangley Club)

Mick has been groundsman at The Park Langley Club for almost 33 years. In this time he has tended the grass courts there, lavishing a great deal of care and attention on them, and maintaining them to a very high standard. His working day in the summer starts at early morning, rolling, cutting and marking the courts out to ensure that they are ready for members to use by mid morning. Winter work on the courts also requires the application of a great deal of knowledge and expertise, carried out in all weathers. On top of the grass courts, the other courts all receive close attention as well. This has enabled the club to attract and maintain a very strong tennis playing membership who enjoy some of the best facilities in Kent.
