

Code of Conduct for Changing Room

Manor Road Tennis (a section of Lymm Rugby Club) is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members.

You are expected to abide by the following code of conduct when using the Manor Road changing room (as required by the Club's insurance package provided through the LTA). Changing rooms are not play areas, they are to be used solely for changing or toileting.

If the behaviour of any person concerns or upsets you, please contact the Welfare Officer whose name and contact number are displayed on the notice board.

Shared Space

Ideally, adults and children should not use the changing room at the same time

Mobile phones, cameras and other recording devices

Mobile phones, cameras and other recording devices must not be used in the changing room

Supervision of Children

Parents and carers are responsible for the supervision of children under the age of 11 years in the changing room.

Bullying and Fighting

The Club will not tolerate bullying or fighting wherever it may happen on the Club premises (including the changing room).

Soiled Dressings/Bandages

Soiled dressings/bandages should be placed in the bio-safe bag provided.
