

ABOUT

MICHAEL FAIRBURN

LTA Level 4 Tennis Coach

Michael started his tennis journey at the age of 8, he quickly fell in love with the sport and started competing in local tournaments. Michael quickly went on to represent his district, The Scottish Borders, and his county South of Scotland, in all age categories.

His coaching career started while he was at school, assisting and leading after school clubs and coaching programme sessions at local tennis clubs. After finishing school, Michael worked for holiday company Mark Warner in Greece for 3 seasons. Afterwards, he started coaching at the David Lloyd Club in Edinburgh and during this time took on his first Head Coach role at Lomond Park, Edinburgh, at the age of 22.

Since moving to England, Michael worked for two companies, Ignition Tennis and GDT, before starting his own company, Pop Up Tennis in 2019 and becoming Head Coach at Riseley Tennis Club.

Michael has a passion for participation and loves introducing players to tennis and igniting their enthusiasm for the sport.
