

ABOUT

TOM KIDACKI

LTA Level 3 Tennis Coach

Tom first started playing tennis at age 12 and was quickly hooked. Tom's work ethic and determination to run every ball down saw him develop his own tennis quickly and this mindset is something Tom preaches to all the players he coaches as he feels it is such a key ingredient to being a successful tennis player.

Tom has worked both in the UK & abroad. He spent 18 months in Shanghai growing a tennis company.

Outside of tennis, Tom is a level 4 Personal Trainer & Strength & Conditioning coach working with young athletes & sports teams to improve their performance. Tom has a strong passion for health & fitness, often dipping his toes in and competing in other sports.
