Please note: It is essential that players are in the correct group for their ability, in order to improve and progress as well as their potential allows them to. Players move through the levels when they are able to serve and rally effectively and judge the flight of the ball for each level. If you have any queries about which group your child should be in, please ask one of the coaching team.

Maidenhead LTC is a LTA Performance Centre with Mini Tennis accreditation and has been awarded the prestigious Tennis Clubmark award.

The club has an excellent reputation for providing Junior Tennis Coaching creating a fun, safe and enjoyable environment for children to experience a wonderful sport. Numerous junior members of Maidenhead have represented the club at County, Regional and National level, but more importantly children discover a sport for life!!!

All sessions are run in conjunction with the Lawn Tennis Association's "Competition Framework", which allows players to use equipment, balls and a court size that is proportionate to the players size, age and ability. For more information on the Competition Framework please see the coaching notice board or www.ndmtennis.co.uk.

To book onto any of the courses, please detach, complete and return the booking form below, attach the relevant payment and send it to Nigel Mann at the address below.
