

SLINFOLD TENNIS CLUB

PHOTOGRAPHY & FILMING POLICY

Slinfold Tennis Club takes its responsibilities for the safety and wellbeing of all of its members seriously and is very aware of child protection issues.

In promoting our club and it's great facilities we understand the value of being able to present quality images of our Juniors enjoying tennis and all the club has to offer. Well produced content including great images, helps us to better promote our club within the local community.

Our Policy

Children will be made aware that photographs or videos may be taken and how images will be used. We will only take images which are appropriate and considered safe from misuse. Children will not be named alongside their photographs unless with express permission. No single image will be used without consent. Event organisers will challenge any unauthorised person taking photographs. Parental /legal guardian consent will be sought prior to their child being photographed, filmed and/or images used on the club's promotional material.

The membership form will allow Parents/Legal Guardians to give their consent or otherwise for photography and filming. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the Membership Secretary
