

How Create a Tennis in Southwark ClubSpark Free Membership.

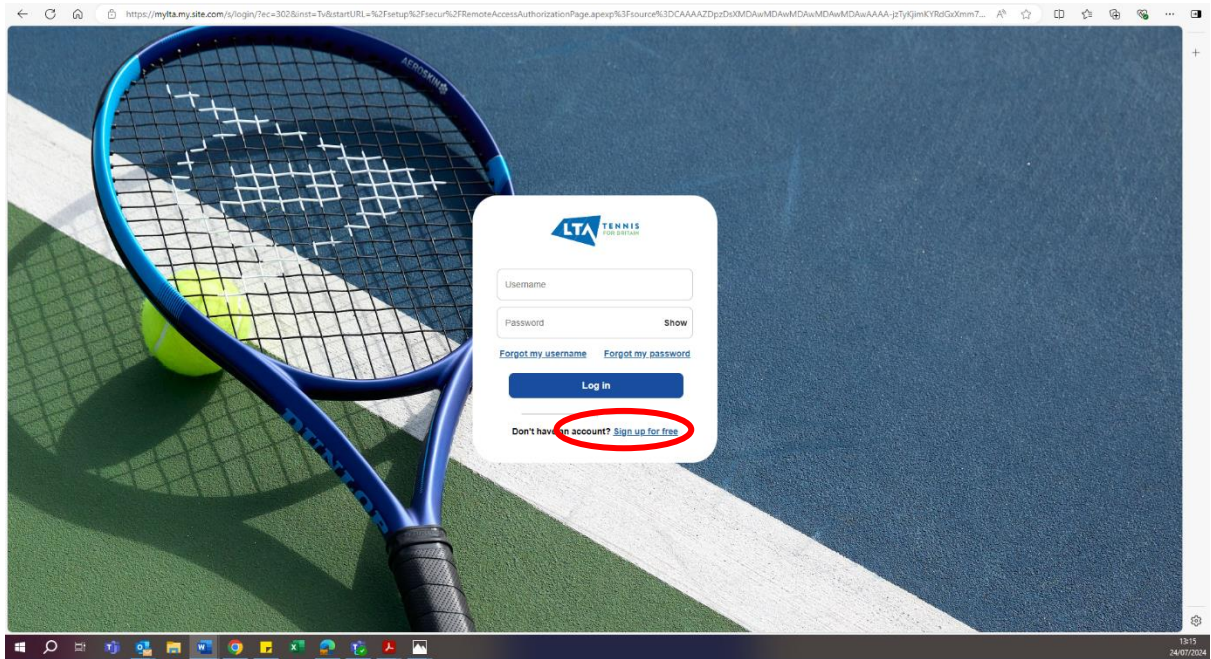

Pay and play – it is free to create a profile/user account on the Tennis in Southwark Clubspark system all you have to do is register your membership.

- To register for a free membership to book a tennis court.
  - Step 1 top right-hand corner of the web page is login in or register click on “Register” to start the process of registering a membership (only over 18’s can register for a membership) if under 18 you have to have an adult to register and we will add the under 18 as a junior linked under the adult.

- Step 2 this will take you to the “Register to Join” page Register with LTA to use Clupspark click on the blue LTA bar to register.

- Step 4 will take you to this page. (See below) Complete the form and at the bottom of the page click Join now and you are a member of Tennis in Southwark and you can now book a court (please not you must have a credit card or debit card to hand to book a court).

Once completed, the tennis courts can be booked on a pay and play basis – with two fees dependent on the time of day/week (peak and off-peak times). See 'Booking Info' tab at the top of the page for more details.
