Coach biographies are displayed in the cafe

Coaches are responsible for their own individual lessons which includes providing equipment and also booking a court.

If you are interested in having individual lessons, contact Reception and you will be added to the list and a coach will be assigned to get in contact with you depending on availability.

Non-members can have lessons but will be charged a visitor fee.

If players would like their lesson indoors, they will need to pay the court hire rate.

If the lesson is outdoors and floodlights are required, they will be charged at the current rate.

Any fees needed to be paid should be done at Reception before the lesson. The coach will sort payment for the coaching with the player.
